Julie Knecht Receives Certified Residential Specialist Designation

(Reno, Nev., October 19, 2007)—Julie Knecht, a RE/MAX Realty Affiliates REALTOR®, has been awarded the prestigious Certified Residential Specialist (CRS) Designation by the Council of Residential Specialists, the largest not-for-profit affiliate of the National Association of REALTORS.

REALTORS® who receive the CRS designation have completed advanced courses and have demonstrated professional expertise in the field of residential real estate. Fewer than 38,000 REALTORS® nationwide have earned the credential. At RE/MAX Realty Affiliates, 30% of the agents hold their CRS designation, while only 5% of agents in the United States hold the designation.

Home buyers and sellers can be assured that CRS designees subscribe to the strict REALTOR® code of ethics, have access to the latest technology and are specialists in helping clients maximize profits and minimize costs when buying or selling a home.

“The CRS program is very beneficial and provides education that is relevant to the profession,” said Knecht. “Having this designation gives me a higher level of experience and allows me to provide better service to my clients.”

Knecht has been a REALTOR® for four years. In addition to the CRS, she also holds the Accredited Buyer Representative (ABR) designation.

RE/MAX Realty Affiliates has quickly grown to be the second highest producing office as recognized by Northern Nevada Regional Multiple Listing Service. For more information about becoming a RRA agent, contact Amy Lessinger at (775) 327-9910.
