RE/MAX Realty Affiliates Agent Earns Hall of Fame Award

(Reno, Nev.)— Jackie Perkins, REALTOR® with RE/MAX Realty Affiliates, has been presented with the RE/MAX Hall of Fame award from RE/MAX International, which honors successful agents for a certain length of service and commissions earned during their careers. As of December 2008, close to 12 percent of all RE/MAX Associates have earned this prestigious award.

“I am very proud to have received the RE/MAX Hall of Fame award,” Perkins said. “I attribute this great achievement to all the wonderful friends and clients I’ve worked with throughout the years and the invaluable training opportunities made available to agents through RE/MAX.”

Jackie has worked as a residential real estate agent for more than 25 years, the past 17 years as a RE/MAX agent. She holds the Accredited Buyer Representative (ABR) and Graduate REALTOR Institute (GRI) designations, in addition to the prestigious Certified Residential Specialist (CRS).

“Jackie is an integral member of our team and is very deserving of this award,” said Amy Lessinger, broker and co-owner of RE/MAX Realty Affiliates. “It’s exciting for an agent to receive national recognition on behalf of RE/MAX International and we are proud to have her on our team.”

Jackie takes pride in the fact that she is a native Nevadan and one of many family members to have graduated from the University of Nevada. Along with supporting the Children’s Miracle Network and the Susan G. Komen Foundation, she is an ardent follower of the San Francisco Giants and also a golf enthusiast.

RE/MAX Realty Affiliates has quickly grown to be the second highest producing office as recognized by Northern Nevada Regional Multiple Listing Service. For more information about becoming a RRA agent, contact Amy Lessinger at (775) 327-9910.
