FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

RE/MAX REALTY AFFILIATES RECEIVES IMPRESSIVE RE/MAX SOUTHWEST REGION AWARDS

Reno, Nev. (May 10, 2018) — RE/MAX Southwest Region (Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico) has recognized RE/MAX Realty Affiliates (RRA) with offices in Reno, Carson City and Gardnerville with prestigious individual, team and office awards for the state of Nevada and Southwest Region. RRA agent Linda Averett placed seventh in the state for commissions in 2017. Three of RRA teams received Top 10 in the state awards: Mike Wood Team placed first for team commissions and closed transactions, The Lessinger Team placed second for team commissions, David Morris Group placed sixth for team commissions. RRA received the 2017 Multi-Office Volume Award for the RE/MAX Southwest Region for closing more than 900 million dollars in volume last year.

“It’s incredibly exciting to have so many of our excellent agents be recognized with these awards,” said Amy Keith Lessinger, broker/owner of the Reno office. “They all are a strong reflection of the RE/MAX philosophy, and I’m proud to see them succeed at this level.”

Agent Kim de Lancey received the RE/MAX 2017 “Community Citizenship” award which is “awarded to an agent who has proven and established exemplary performance in their office, as well as contributed to their community” for the RE/MAX Southwest Region. de Lancey, who joined RRA in 2005, received this award for her dedication to Grace Church’s HopeFirst initiative, which is a three-year initiative to create homes for people to live in while they recover from addiction. By combining her many years of real estate experience and ministry passion, de Lancey has played the key role in locating and facilitating the acquisition of recovery homes for HopeFirst.

Craig Boltman, RRA’s Managing Broker, received the RE/MAX 2017 “Above the Crowd” award which is “presented to an agent who is well rounded, an invaluable resource to the office, their peers, and supports the community” for the state of Nevada. Boltman received this award for his outstanding involvement in all aspects of RRA. Always willing to assist his fellow agents and give back his time through volunteering at community events, Boltman has committed himself to helping make RRA successful.

For the second consecutive year, RRA was recognized with the Children's Miracle Network Award for 2017 for having the highest total contributions for the state.
