FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

RE/MAX Realty Affiliates Named as a Top Brokerage by RISMedia

Reno, Nev. (April 16, 2019) — RE/MAX Realty Affiliates (RRA), one of Northern Nevada’s most successful real estate companies, announced its ranking in the prestigious RISMedia’s Power Broker Report “The Top 1,000” most productive brokerages in the U.S. RRA ranked number 329 among the over 8,500 participating real estate firms throughout the country, based on transactions.

“This prestigious recognition is a testament to the amazing accomplishments of our dedicated and motivated elite agents,” said Amy Keith Lessinger, broker/owner of RRA. “The education, tools, support and guidance our agents receive is unparalleled and offers them the opportunities they can tap into to take their businesses to the next level.”

With offices in Reno, Gardnerville and Carson City, RRA reported 2018 data that included more than $860 million in sales volume and 2,144 closed real estate transactions from their 117 agents. This year’s Power Broker Report is based on responses to RISMedia’s 2018 Power Broker Survey, distributed in January. “The firms represented are the nation’s most elite brokerage firms serving literally millions of consumers with their real estate needs,” said RISMedia president and CEO. He added that the Power Broker Report honors the incredible business feats of remarkable real estate leaders – and broker firms – who continue to shape the industry.

Through the Power Broker Report, RISMedia announced national sales volume at more than $1.4 trillion with 3.8 million transactions among the 515,600 agents. Other highlights of the Survey included: 49 percent of the brokerages reported challenges with the lack of housing supply and 37 percent believe that the largest percentage of the business opportunity is first-time home buyers and millennials. The majority of Power Brokers believe that the housing market is balanced.
