RE/MAX Realty Affiliates Agent Tami Eifert Earns Hall Of Fame Award

RE/MAX Honors Local Real Estate Agent for Excellent Business Performance

(RENO, Nev. – July 28, 2020) - RE/MAX Realty Affiliates (RRA) agent Tami Eifert has received the RE/MAX Hall of Fame Award, which honors successful agents. Less than 22 percent of all active RE/MAX agents have earned this prestigious award since its inception.

“This is such a significant accomplishment for Tami and we’re extremely proud of her dedication to her clients and our RRA team,” said Amy Keith Lessinger, RRA broker/owner.

A third-generation Nevadan, Eifert has witnessed the huge city-wide shifts and the quieter changes within individual neighborhoods. During her years as a RE/MAX agent, Eifert has earned the Accredited Buyers Representative (ABR), Certified Distressed Property Expert (CDPE), Certified Residential Specialist (CRS) and the e-PRO designations.

“Earning the Hall of Fame award is such an honor,” said RRA agent Tami Eifert. “To me, real estate is an emotional process. I intimately understand the excitement and pride of buying your first home. And I understand the fear and stress of struggling to keep your home after a financial setback. Working with people to make one of the biggest investments in their lifetimes is truly so rewarding.”
